2009 NRCHA Affiliate of the Year The Ohio Reined Cow Horse Association

Every year during the Annual Year-End Awards Banquet, the NRCHA honors the Affiliate of the Year. The award goes to the NRCHA Affiliate that has been the most innovative in drawing in new members and has shown the most growth in entry numbers, membership, and payout. For 2009, the Affiliate of the Year distinction went to the Ohio Reined Cow Horse Association.

In its inaugural year, the ORCHA paid out $38,195 for the six weekend events of 2009, which concluded with the Heartbreak Ridge Performance Horses Derby. The 2009 Derby weekend winners earned more than $9,500 in cash and prizes, which included CR Morrison bronzes and plaques as well as Tom Balding snaffles.

The ORCHA continues its growth trend in 2010, as membership has already expanded from 120 members at the end of last year to 150 following the first show of the season.

The ORCHA is scheduled to have six shows for 2010. Added to the schedule for 2010 will be American Quarter Horse Association cutting and cow horse classes at the June and July shows. Each weekend's activities will include Friday night herd work with NRCHA-sanctioned shows on Saturday and Sunday.

The 2010 show season will once again culminate with the Heartbreak Ridge Performance Horses Derby, newly added ORCHA Futurity and Stallion Stakes, and a clinic by renowned trainer and only woman to win the Snaffle Bit Futurity, Sandy Collier, October 29- November 1.

A new addition to the ORCHA is the Stallion Auction, where you can purchase a breeding at reduced cost and the resulting foal will be eligible for the ORCHA Stakes program. All auction proceeds will go to the Stakes fund. Bids start at 50% of the stallion's advertised fee.

"I see the future of the ORCHA as being very bright - our membership is expanding at a tremendous pace and we strive to better the organization every day," says ORCHA founder and director, Carrie McBride. "The show facilities (Henderson Arena) are amazing - from the arenas to the footing to the food!"

McBride continued, "We really strive to have a place for everyone to experience cow horse at a level at which they are comfortable and we try to come up with innovative ways to reward riders to keep moving forward."

The ORCHA thanks Just Like Starlight, Roseberry Cattle Company, DAC, Rosell Trailer Sales, Heartbreak Ridge Performance Horses, Taylor Performance Horses, McBride Cow Horses, Triple F Ranch, Veal Performance Horses, Rods, and Yellow Creek Ranch for being such generous sponsors.

Founded in 2008, the Ohio Reined Cow Horse Association is a non-profit affiliate of the NRCHA. For more information on the ORCHA, check out the website www.ohiorcha.com.
